TIML "This Is my Life?"

Telling the stories of my life with exaggerations.

[Frames from the Valentines Day Edition 2005]

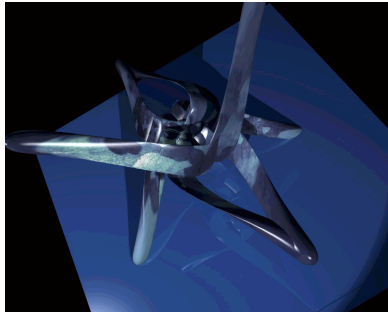

Loose Ends

Short documentaries that don't necessarily have conclusions. They are open ended to be thought provoking or un-tied because events never finished.

Pure CG & Computer Enhanced

Short Computer Generated test clips abound. I have yet to do a meaningful 'anything' this way. A lot of times they are Specials Effects Tests.

Gift Card Like Things

I tend to create short gift card like movies that say happy birthday or Happy fathers day and more.

Sellable Work

Getting there. This will probably include any tutor videos I attempt.

Dramatics {actors,story,plot, stuff}

Past projects did not turn out they way I see them in my mind.

[frames from The Missing Essay & The Conscience]

School Projects that I helped with

I particularly loath doing stuff like this for people. Or at least I have a history of getting upset over developments. It's just too much of my time. For the future, I CHARGE. A great deterrent it should be.

[frames from Bipedalism Movie May 2005]

Montages

Lots. Basically most of my early stuff.
